

UNITED MINE WORKERS JOURNAL

The United Mine Workers Journal has been the official publication of the UMWA since the union's founding in 1890. Originally a tabloid-sized black-and-white monthly newspaper, the Journal has evolved into the dynamic, four-color bi-monthly magazine it is today. In 1890, the Journal included lists of miners killed in disasters and cooking tips for women; today it covers political and economic issues that affect UMWA members. It also covers union news and includes an award-winning series on the UMWA's retired members.
